

(Walter) Edward Paul Jones

Ed Jones was born May 31, 1931 in Crawford, Texas, a small town west of Waco. Ed served in the U.S Army (Active and Reserve), U.S. Air Force (Active and Reserve), Texas National Guard and Texas Air National Guard. During his service, Ed served aboard three Aircraft Carriers and on various Air Force, Army and Navy military bases in the United States, Spain and France.

Ed also served as a Technical Advisor, United States Air Force and United States Navy for specialized Communications/Electronics systems.

Ed is active in the United States Air Force Military Affiliate Radio System (USAF MARS), with over 55 years in MARS. He is a Life Member-Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association (AFCEA), Life Member-American Radio Relay League (ARRL), Life member – Civil Air Patrol, Life Member-American Legion, Endowed member of the Masonic order, past member MENSA and various other organizations.

Ed received the prestigious Presidential Lifetime Volunteer Service Award.

Ed retired from LTV Corporation (the old Chance Vought Aircraft Co.) after 38 years as Technician, Supervisor, Avionics Engineer, Production Engineer, Field Service Engineer and Manager-Communications and Security Electronics.