

Paul Andrew Cervantes

Paul was raised in Houston, Texas. After a short time in college, he enlisted in the U.S. Army as a Military Policeman in 1978 and remained on active duty until April of 1992 (with a break in service from 81-83). Paul was "retired" under Medical Conditions in 1992 and shortly thereafter accepted an appointment with the U.S. Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Prisons at the U.S. Penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas. Paul is currently assigned to a position in Washington, D.C. He loves the outdoors, camping, fishing and riding his Harley Davidson motorcycle and grilling large quantities of any meat. Paul has been married for 31 years to his lovely wife, Debbie, and have two children, Paul Jr. and Kimberly, both happily married. Paul and Debbie have two beautiful granddaughters who are their pride and joy. Paul is humbled by his selection as 2nd Vice Commander and hopes to contribute to the Post in any positive way possible. He would also like to thank his fellow "Legion" brothers for allowing him this honor and hopes to exceed their expectations.
